

I am adamantly opposed to any broadening of media ownership rules. It is truly dangerous and a hazard to the future of democracy to have major media voices controlled by a very few, as is already the case to a significant degree. The FCC is supposed to represent the public interest, not just business interest. Please do not relax the present rules.